REMEMBRANCE DAY EVENTS IN KETTERING 2021

Thursday November 11th 2021 11am

There will be a service of remembrance at the War Memorial, Sheep St, in Kettering at 11am, to allow local people and groups to pay their respects to the fallen in past conflicts. This will be a short service and wreath laying.

Sunday November 14th 2021 2pm

There is a longer Remembrance Day Parade and Service of Remembrance, starting at 2pm in the Market Place, Kettering and concluding at the war memorial in Sheep St.

The Lord Lieutenant for Northamptonshire, James Saunders Watson will lay the first wreath.

The service will be led by the Rev David Walsh, Rector of SS Peter and Paul Church and Chaplain to the Kettering Branch of the Royal British Legion.

Both events have been organised by the Royal British Legion Kettering branch, with support from North Northamptonshire Council and Kettering Town Council.

All are welcome to both events
